The purpose of T.I.M.E. International is to share the message of Jesus Christ. All applicants will be placed in countries based on availability, qualifications, and desire. Therefore, there is a chance an applicant may not go to their first choice. Sightseeing and shopping will be permitted only if it coincides with the main purpose of the team in each country. If it is deemed inconvenient for travel time or hinders ministry opportunities in any way, cancellation of such activities could occur. Trip costs are subject to change because of constant fluctuations in airfare. Travel arrangements, dates, and schedules are also subject to change, although extremely unlikely. Countries may be switched in the event of any political, natural, or mission related crisis. All contributions are non-refundable. T.I.M.E. International decides if and where to send an individual or team. In the event that a trip is cancelled for any reason, team members will be assigned to their second choice or a trip of similar expense. T.I.M.E. International is a highly disciplined ministry with regulations including conduct, dress and lifestyle. These are explained more in the acceptance packet. All T.I.M.E. Travelers must adhere strictly to T.I.M.E. International guidelines and are subject to dismissal at any point on the trip for disobedience - without refund or reimbursement. Team members serve at their own risk and T.I.M.E. International is not liable in the event of sickness, accident, death, terrorist acts, transportation or any other expenses beyond that of normal involvement. The T.I.M.E. International experience can include physical activity such as extended walking and drama choreography. We require all T.I.M.E. Travelers to be in good physical condition.

The information I have given is accurate and true to the best of my knowledge. I also give T.I.M.E.
